A true

ACCOUNT OF The Rebels IN West of SCOTLAND.

Edenburgh, June 4.

ON Saturday the 29th past, a Company of men, to the number of 80, well Mounted and Armed, came Douglas, Proclaimed the Covenant, and [illegible] several Acts of Parliament, viz. The [illegible] concerning the Kings Supremacy, the [illegible]ssory Act, the Act for Establishing Epi[illegible]acy, and the Act appointing the Anniver[illegible] of the 29th of May; and that done, [illegible] affixed a certain Scandelous and Traito[illegible] Paper, or Declaration, on the Marketcroſs; and intended to have done the ſ at Glaſgow, but were prevented by the K Forces there.

On Sunday laſt Captain Graham of C houſe, upon the notice he had of a number of men being gathered tog upon Loudown-hill, marched thither wi Troop and a Company of Dragoons, found there 14 or 1500 men well A and in good Order; the Foot commande one Weir, and the Horſe by Rob. Ha one Paton, Balfoor, and Haxſton (thes laſt being of the Murderers of the A Biſhop of St. Andrews.)

The Rebels upon Captain Graham proach, ſent out two Parties to Skir with him, which he beat into their ma dy; then they advanced with their force upon him, who after a conſide ſlaughter of the Rebels, and the loſs Cornet, two Brigadiers, and about Horſe, and twenty Dragoons, (his own H being killed under him, and mounting other) he being ſo much over-powre number, he made his Retreat towards being in his way forced to fight his through the Townſmen of Streuin, were got together to oppoſe it, leaving twelve of them dead on the place.

Munday morning the Rebels had the ence to Attack the City of Glaſgow, at veral times, but all the Streets were ſo rricaded by the Lord Roſs, and the rs there put in ſo good a poſture, that bels were beat off with a conſiderable des many Priſoners that were taken; reupon the Horſe and Dragoons in own Salyed out, and when our laſt came away, were in purſuit of their
